

KATHMANDU UNIVERSITY
School of Engineering
Master Degree Programs (Course Based)
Call for Application for Admission 2016

Kathmandu University (KU), School of Engineering, calls for application for admission in the following Master Degree Programs for the academic year 2016/2017.

1. Master of Engineering in Computer Engineering
2. M. Tech. in Information Technology
3. Master in Planning and Operation of Energy Systems
4. Master of Engineering in Structural Engineering
5. Master in Land Administration (run in cooperation with Land Management Training Center (LMTC), Dhulikhel, and School of Arts)

Please read first the application related information about the programs and provisions.

All programs are of 2 year (4 semesters) full-time study programs run in Dhulikhel Campus of KU. The admission is open for Nepalese as well as foreign nationals.

Aspiring eligible candidates are required to duly fill the Online Application Form available at <http://apply.ku.edu.np/admission/>. Candidates are advised to check the application requirements first by downloading the application form in Word format.

In order to complete the application, applicants are required to pay application fee of NRs. 1,250/- and submit copies certificates/transcripts, copies of other documents and photographs as mentioned in the application form checklist by the deadline to the concerned department and get the admission test/interview date. Selected candidates after admission test/interview will be notified for completing the admission process by the deadline on KU Website (www.ku.edu.np).

The completed application submission deadline is 25 October 2016, Tuesday.

Dean
School of Engineering
Kathmandu University